

Class / group: _____ Term / dates: _____

Student names → Practice Statements below
Following and creating a sequence of step-by-step instructions for moving people or objects to a different location, including half and quarter turns and the distance to be travelled Using simple maps to locate objects and places relative to other objects and places.
Identifying, describing, visualising and sorting regular polygons with up to 10 sides
Recognising lines of symmetry in patterns or pictures, and creating or completing symmetrical patterns or pictures										