

Class / group: _____ Term / dates: _____

Student names Practice Statements below →
Identifying how people or places are presented in a text and explaining how that influences the audience's point of view
Making connections within and between texts, and with their own knowledge, experiences, and cultural understandings, to discuss differences and similarities in how the texts are interpreted or viewed
Sharing their interpretation of ideas in texts, acknowledging that others may interpret texts differently, and considering how others' ideas might strengthen or challenge their own										