

Class / group: _____ Term / dates: _____

Student names Practice Statements below →
Comparing how people, places, or ideas are represented in different texts and explaining how these representations influence the audience
Making connections within and between texts, describing how the ideas in texts connect with their own topic knowledge, lived experiences, cultural knowledge, and practices
Contributing to text discussions by building on others' ideas and comparing different interpretations										